

CSU Campus of Character Council Character Award

Colorado State University has twice been ranked among the nation's Top Character Building Institutions by the Templeton Foundation. Colorado State University's Campus of Character Council is in partnership with the Character Council of Greater Fort Collins. Our vision is to be a community built upon character development and civic engagement. We strive to establish a community culture that encourages, recognizes, and celebrates character development. Our mission is:

A Campus of Character is a community of individuals committed to a life long journey of demonstrating high standards in their actions.

Awards are given to individuals and groups/organizations that demonstrate and promote character development, as illustrated by the following monthly character traits.

August: Trustworthiness, Honor
September: Respect, Courage
October: Service, Compassion
November: Civility, Open-mindedness
December: Gratitude, Generosity
January: Responsibility, Reflectiveness
February: Perseverance, Initiative
March: Justice, Dignity
April: Consideration, Inclusiveness
May: Honesty, Integrity
